

*Ankur Hospital

Affordable, Reliable, Specialty Healthcare

Public Notice

As per the RBI circular RBI/2016-17/112 following the Government of India Gazette Notification No 2652 dated November 08, 2016 all Indian Currency notes of face value 500 and 1000 cannot be tendered except a few exceptions as notified from time to time. The exceptions include PUBLIC HOSPITALS ONLY. PRIVATE HOSPITAL CANNOT ACCEPT THE DEMONETISED CURRENCY EVEN IN EMERGENCY.

We do understand that there may not be enough currency available for seeking medical treatment and hence the below mentioned modes of payment are currently available:

1. Credit Card [VISA / MASTERCARD]
2. Debit Card [RuPay / VISA / MASTERCARD]
3. NEFT / RTGS
4. IMPS
5. DD / Payorder
6. Cheque
7. Legally Acceptable Currency Notes [Cheques shall be issued for non-availability of exact change]

We would like to caution the public to not believe various misinformations / incomplete information available on various Media & Social Media platforms.

We urge you to visit the Reserve Bank of India website (<https://rbi.org.in>) to seek the correct information.

We are here to help you in your time of need so please do cooperate.

2% Credit/Debit Card Transaction
Charges have been waived off on OPD
Services till further notice.

Regards,
Ankur Hospital

Dated: 14th November 2016